Swaders Hosts Fundraising Event

PRINCE GEORGE – Swaders Sports Park hosted a mini golf tournament on Monday, July 19, 2010 in celebration of ESPN Radio 950's six-year anniversary of the show "Hardly Workin'" hosted by Greg Burton. The proceeds of the event were donated to the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA). Burton held a live broadcast of "Hardly Workin'" at the park from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. while guests enjoyed a leisurely game of mini golf and cake. Lennie Nugent, the area representative for the FCA, was also on hand to accept donations from the mini golf fundraiser.

Burton expressed his delight from being able to celebrate the anniversary of his radio show at Swaders by saying, "I'm very happy we could commemorate this momentous occasion with the help of Swaders. They are dedicated to supporting local sports throughout Central Virginia. I'm also pleased we could collect donations to support a tremendous group like the FCA."

"Since Glenn Swader is a member of the local FCA leadership board," said Nugent, "Swaders has been able to support us with several of our functions at the park in the past year. We greatly appreciate the opportunity to work in conjunction with Swaders and Greg Burton from ESPN 950 in their mini golf fundraiser."

Swaders is a family-friendly sports park located at the intersection of Temple Avenue and Puddledock Road. The park also features other attractions such as go-kart tracks, laser tag, 70+ arcade games, an indoor playland, batting cages, a driving range, and on-site lessons with a golf pro.
